

I want New Jersey to be able to continue with its current do not call policies under the telephone consumer protection act. I do not want to be disturbed by telemarketers and I think this should be my choice.